

Do you have a passion for serving? What would it feel like to know that you are working for something bigger than you? Work with a purpose. Our upscale Thrift store supports GIFTS Men's Shelter. The income generated goes directly to the shelter and the men in need we serve. Bring your love for Jesus to the job and make a difference. As we grow, so do our opportunities. We are in need of a lead for Bric a Brac.

YOU: Servant mentality, reliable, attention to detail, willing to take direction, someone who takes pride in their work

YOUR ROLE: Sort the home goods and determine what makes it to the sales floor, this can include testing and cleaning an item as well as researching the value of an item that might be unfamiliar to you, staging and displaying donations, working alongside and directing volunteers in your department, you may be asked to do additional work as need that could include additional departments. This is a daytime position that can include some Saturday work. You will learn the GIFTS story and feel comfortable sharing it with others.

*Must be able to stand, lift, twist, and reach. Lift up to 40 lbs.
